COVID-19 Laws Take Effect April 1st. IMPORTANT WEBCAST - TOMORROW Tune-in and Learn

April 1st, Coronavirus laws come into effect, and this is nothing that any of us have experienced before. COVID-19 is presenting unique challenges for employers and their customers trying to maintain business operations amid threatened shutdowns, travel bans, and the cancellation of major events.

MB is pleased to have Bob Dunlevey and Nadia Lampton of Taft/Law provide this timely webinar to you on Tuesday, March 31, at 2:00 p.m. McGohan Brabender is providing this webinar at no expense to our clients/friends. Please click below to register for the webcast tomorrow afternoon. This webcast is open to the first 500 who register.

ODI Guidance of 60 Day Grace Period

Since Governor DeWine's March 9th declaration of emergency, the ODI Superintendent acknowledges the fact that this will be trying times financially. Thus, a minimum of a 60-day grace period must be granted to the those insured. Click below for more details directly from Ohio Department of Insurance.

Families First Coronavirus Response Act Q&A

US Department of Labor: Wage and Hour Division

US DOL has put together over four dozen specific questions, with detailed answers for employers and employees no matter their employment status. Definitely a good resource of information limited to the coronavirus quarantine stipulation. Reminder as of now, this Act will expire, December 31, 2020.

CARES ACT: Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act

The coronavirus stimulus package now has a name, CARES Act. Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act has been signed into law. We have covered this several times in our daily updates, however, the links below will share a full, legal story including the FFCRA and now the CARES Act with all aspects of this COVID-19 law hoping to make some sense of this new law. Realistically, as it mentions in the conclusion, "If there's anything that is certain, it is that the full economic impact of this unprecedented pandemic is yet to be understood. Despite the unpredictability, Congress' historic economic stimulus package is a sight for sore eyes for struggling businesses and individuals alike."

SPECIAL LEARNING CENTER WEBINAR-

Thursday April 30th

LEADING THROUGH DISRUPTION

In this “new-Coronavirus world”, the words of Charles Darwin have never been more true: “It is not the strongest of the species that survives, nor the most intelligent, but rather the one most adaptable to change.” Please note the previous email invite had the wrong day, but the correct date. Apologies for the confusion

Carrier Updates: Updating Daily

Lately the carriers are sharing information about defer premium payments. Majority of carriers are directing that if you do wish to defer your payment, you must request it. Some are only allowing to defer March, which ironically, you have probably already paid. Check our website for those specific articles to determine your options with each of your carriers.

Home Office: Needs to Fit Right

We have covered the importance of setting up your work office properly to avoid injury, and create a perfect work environment. We have to start over with phase two, the at-home office. It appears we are in for a longer at-home ride than expected. These ergonomic tips are a great reminder of an office layout to avoid musculoskeletal pain and/or injury.
