NON-ESSENTIAL EMPLOYERS BE AWARE

Paul Routh, our ERISA attorney-at-hand, was losing sleep, concerned about our MB clients. He wanted to be sure that the non-essential employers are aware of the wrinkle that COVID-19 has put on the ACA health plans. If layoffs or furloughs are imminent to your company's future, consider the impact of the Employer Shared Responsibility (ESR) requirements of the Patient Protection and ACA on group health plan. Paul would like us to share this very informative article and hopefully answer any questions, or at least point you in the right direction.

JOYAGES: VIRTUAL ESCAPES

"Take it One Day at a Time"

Coach Claire Burnett has a direct hit in her family and shares how easy it is to 'lose it' when things start to get tight, and especially when this crisis turns personal. Stress hits us all differently, but the constant is that stress weakens our immune system. Look to today! Tomorrow will be tomorrow. Tune in with Coach B with Joyages.

Special Learning Center Webinar Thursday, April 30th

LEADING THROUGH DISRUPTION

We will continue to offer this link to sign up for one of our most attended Learning Center presenters, Kristi Dinsmore. In this “new-Coronavirus world”, the words of Charles Darwin have never been more true: “It is not the strongest of the species that survives, nor the most intelligent, but rather the one most adaptable to change.” Spots are still available for this MB Special Webinar.

Thursday, April 30th, 10:00 AM - 11:30 AM

MB FEEL GOOD FRIDAY

As a company, today we had our monthly employee meeting. Over 180 of us, virtually gathering online. We laughed at our backgrounds, our new haircuts, facial hairs that look a little odd, and we played bingo! We chatted about how much we miss each other. We are a family of friends, and love what we do, for you! For today, we would like to leave you with SGN - yes, Some Good News with John Krasinski. With some creativity, we can still be together. Stay safe, we are all in this together.
