

In addition to the website and phone number which are shared below, we can set up Direct Scheduling.

Direct Scheduling includes:

- One person at a company would schedule for their employees
- The ability to schedule from multiple appointment times
- The ability to schedule for groups
- The ability to schedule blocks of time for appointments

If any employers are interested in arranging Direct Scheduling, please let me know, and we can talk more about the details. Initially, I will need to know the number of employees that would be interested in an appointment.

If an employer is not interested in Direct Scheduling but would like the website link and phone number to schedule appointments with the general public, here they are:
